

Dixie State College Fact Sheet for International Students * 2009-2010

Dixie State College is a four-year public institution located in sunny St. George, Utah. Founded in 1911, the College is experiencing significant growth as students are discovering that they can earn a high-quality education in the beautiful, red rock country of Southern Utah. But, why should YOU consider attending DSC? Here are just a few reasons that students have told us:

- Quality Degree Programs: Nationally recognized Dental Hygiene, Nursing, and Business programs. Over 40 different bachelor's degree combinations, six associates degree programs, seven associate's of applied science degrees, and ten certificate programs.
- Safety: Dixie State College is one of the safest campuses in the nation. Located in a smaller community with a reputation for being friendly. New emergency response system recently installed.
- Cost: U.S. News recently named DSC as the third least expensive four-year college in the nation. For international students, the overall yearly cost (including living expenses) is around $16,000.
- Location: Located in beautiful southern Utah, DSC is close to several national parks, to include Zion National Park and Bryce Canyon. By car, we are 90 minutes away from Las Vegas, Nevada.
- Climate: The average yearly temperature is 76 degrees. The winters are mild, with a high desert climate. If you want to find snow in the winter, skiing is only an hour away.
- Course Transferability: In addition to accepting associate's degrees from other accredited institutions, Dixie State's credits and degrees are recognized nationally, with formal matriculation agreements within Utah. Your degree will easily transfer to other universities in Utah and the United States.
- Personable: Small class sizes— student to faculty ratio is 23 to 1. Your instructors will know you by your first name. Our international student coordinator will help you every step of the way, and there will be several outings each semester to help you become familiar with the local area and to have fun.
