Purpose of Faculty Senate

The purpose of the Faculty Senate is to serve Dixie State University and further the fulfillment of its mission by

- providing an authoritative voice for faculty;
- working to improve the general welfare of faculty;
- fostering professionalism among the faculty;
- supporting the Academic Freedom rights of faculty, students, and the institution itself;
- promoting communication among the faculty, administrators, staff, students, and community members;
- encouraging good fellowship among the faculty.
- giving input to student affairs

Areas of Authority for the Faculty Senate

With required approval from the University president, the Board of Trustees, and the Utah Board of Regents, the Faculty Senate has the following authoritative roles:

- Acts as an advisory body to the University President.
- Acts as an advisory body to Academic Affairs and Student Affairs
- Serves as the representative body for the faculty of the institution in matters relating to shared governance in the academic administration and operation of the University. Shared governance includes meaningful participation in the following areas:
  - Curriculum, subject matter, methods of instruction, and aspects of student life that directly relate to the educational process, including requirements for degrees offered, determining when requirements have been fulfilled, and recommending when degrees are conferred.
  - Decisions regarding the general academic operations of the University, including budget to inform administrators about faculty views and communicating relevant information between the parties. It does not include decision-making outside the areas where individual faculty members have been assigned such responsibilities.
  - Formulation and revision of University policies and to make recommendations regarding the approval or disapproval of those policies.
  - Faculty employment status and related matters such as appointments, reappointments, nonrenewal of appointments, terminations, and the granting of post-probationary status.
